The two-day National Faculty Development Programme on “Telugu Language and Literature” was organised by Department of Languages, Aurora’s Degree & P.G College on the 22nd and 23rd of October 2021, Online, via Microsoft teams . Around 500 registrations took place from all over India, and more than 100 participated in this two-day National faculty development programme.

On Day 1 of the programme i.e., on the 22nd October, the programme began at 10:00 AM with the songs conveying the importance of Telugu for 10 minutes. Later the participants were welcomed and rules and etiquette of online mode were instructed. After that, the programme began with a prayer by D. Harikrishna, faculty, Department of Languages. After the prayer, Head, Department of Languages gave her welcome speech and spoke on the objective of the two-day National Faculty Development Programme “Telugu Language and Literature”.

Dr. N.Suryakanthi took over the proceedings of the programme. After she welcomed the guests, lighting the lamp with the Song on Deepaprajwalan took place. After lighting the lamp, the first speaker of Day 1 - session 1, Professor Masana chennappa was introduced by Dr.N suryakanthi .Professor Masana chennappa spoke on ‘Padya Bodhana - Melakuvalu’. Masana chennappa spoke about the importance of Telugu through poems. Later, there was a question-answer session held, questions from the participants were clarified. Dr.N.Suryakanthi thanked Masana chennappa and session 1 of Day 1 national Faculty Development Programme ended with a photo session. Break for lunch was announced.

After lunch, second session of day 1 started. The rules and etiquette for the online mode were put forth again for a smooth conduct of the programme by Dr.N suryakanthi. After the announcement of the rules, the speaker of the second session Dr.P Vijay kumar was introduced by Dr.N suryakanthi. Dr. P. Vijay Kumar spoke on “Alankaralu Vishleshana ” . After the speech, there was a question-answer session held and the speaker was kind enough to answer all the queries of the participants. Dr.N.Suryakanthi thanked the speaker for a wonderful and enlightening speech pondering over many interesting points that has enriched the knowledge of the participants on the subject. The session ended with a photo session. With that, Day 1 of National Faculty Development Programme on“Telugu languages and literature” was successfully completed.

DAY 2 :

Day 2 i.e. 23rd October 2021 began at 10 :00AM with a prayer by D. Harikrishna. After the prayer

Dr.N.Suryakanthi took over the proceedings, to introduce the speaker of the 1st session of Day 2, Dr.Mamidala Ramesh babu. After the introduction, Dr.Mamidala Ramesh babu spoke on “Kathanika-vastuvu-shilpam”. Though the topic is vast, he made an excellent impact on participants by well educating them on the basics and overview. Dr.N.Suryakanthi has put forth a token of thanks for enlightening all participants on the different stages in the Kathanika-vastuvu-shilpam

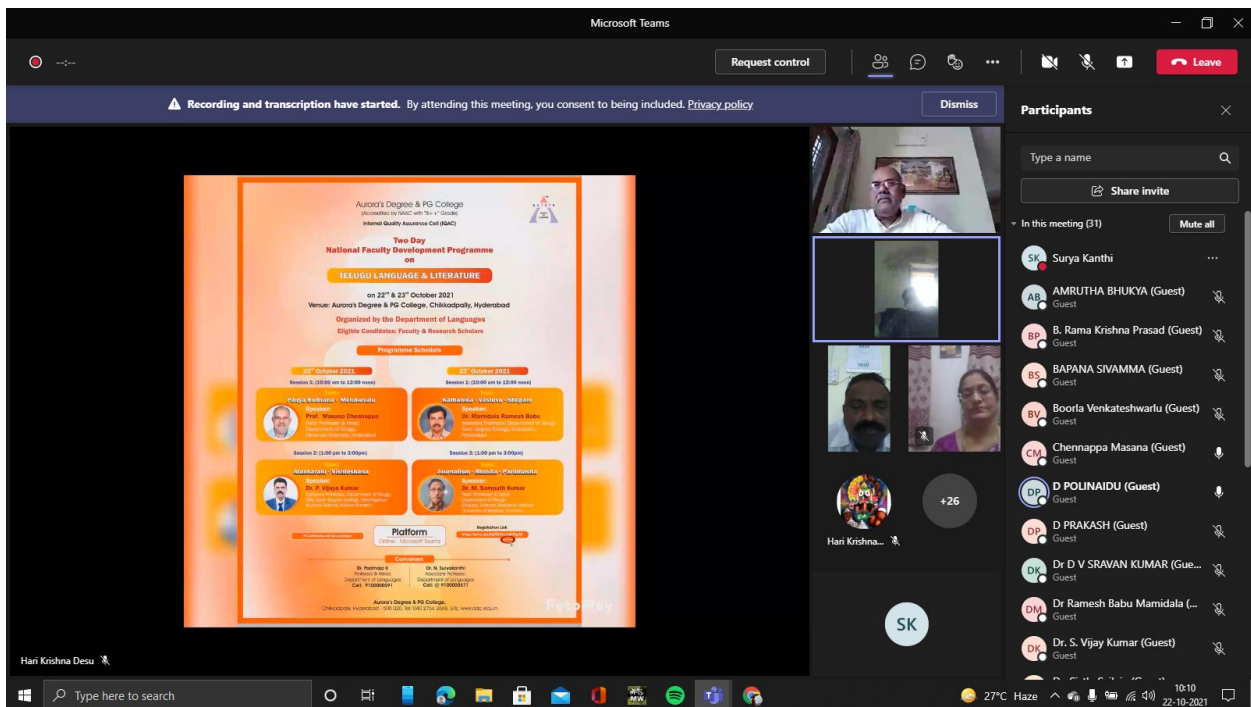

After thanks were rendered, a break for lunch was announced.

After lunch the 2nd session of Day 2 began. The rules and etiquette were again announced and the speaker, Professor M.Sampath Kumar was introduced by Dr. N.Suryakanthi.

The speaker educated the participants on “Journalism – Bhasha – Paribhasha”. A token of thanks was rendered by Dr.N.Suryakanthi

After the thanks-giving Dr.N suryakanthi, Department of Languages rendered the vote of thanks to college organizers and speakers. A photo session took place. After the photo session, the two-day national faculty development programme came to an end, which was appreciated and well received by the participants.
