MESSAGE

I am delighted to know that the Aurora Degree and PG College, in collaboration with the Centre for Women's Studies, Osmania University, Hyderabad, is organising an International Conference on "Women-Enablers of Change" on 8th March, 2021 on the occasion of International Women's Day-2021.

I appreciate the theme of your conference. I am sure that the conference will highlight the role of women as enablers of change and document their success stories so as to create awareness and inspire other aspirant women.

The sub-themes of the conference facilitating the debate and wide ranging deliberations on issues like the active participation of women in business, healthcare, education, entrepreneurship, finance, innovation, research and technology are highly relevant.

I hope the international conference titled "Women-Enablers of Change" will come up with useful policy suggestions for the equal and rightful participation of women and their excellence in all the sectors.

I extend my best wishes and hearty congratulations to all the organisers, paper presenters, panellists and other participants of the international conference.

I wish you all a Happy International Women's Day-2021

Stay Safe	Don't Meet Up	Accepting Files	Reliable?	Tell Someone
Don't give out your personal information to people / places you don't know.	Meeting someone you have only been in touch with online can be dangerous. Always check with an adult you trust.	Accepting emails, files, pictures or texts from people you don't know can cause problems.	Check information before you believe it. Is the person or website telling the truth?	Tell an adult if someone or something makes you feel worried or uncomfortable.
